"GOD BLESS OUR EMPIRE"

There's an Empire who's Dominions
Reach out North, South, East and West:
An Empire where of all things dear,
Freedom is loved the best,
With an host of sons and daughters
Ever loyal brave and true,
Who're fighting, toiling, helping her
To see a world war through.

CHORUS:

God bless our Empire
And the lads across the sea;
Keep them victorious,
Where'er they may be.
God bless our women,
They're the Empire's pride and joy
They've served her nobly,
So says every soldier boy.

There's a flag that waves above us
In this Empire great and wide;
A flag that stands for justice, truth,
Whatever may betide:
It's a flag that's called the Union Jack,
A flag we'll love for aye,
And as it waves serene above,
It somehow seems to say:

CHORUS:

God bless our Empire
And the lads across the sea;
Keep them victorious,
Where'er they may be.
God bless our women,
They're the Empire's pride and joy
They've served her nobly,
So says every soldier boy.
